

Newmann Archive

As fandom content goes missing quickly, this is intended as a repository for Newt & Hermann related fan projects that might otherwise be hard to find!

Anyone is free to add to this, but as dropbox space is limited please generally keep it to things you want to preserve, rather than everything:

DO add:

- Pdfs & epubS of your fav Newmann fanfics from AO3 (including original tags!)

- Zines, artbooks and other large-scale fan projects. Links to the original artists and their shops & tip jars should be added to the Zine Readme.

(This archive is not intended as piracy! If you enjoy one of these zines and can afford to, please consider tipping the artists, especially if the links to their zine is up and still active.)

- Interviews, dvd extras, artbooks, concept art and other official content
- Resources for future fans to help them make new works

DON'T add: (because of space limitations)

- fanvids
- memes
- full size PSDs of fanart
- repeats and variations of things already in the archive.
